Nailed To The Cross

When peace like a river attendeth my way, (or) when sorrows like sea billows roll ... whatever my lot [placid river or stormy seas], thou hast taught me to say, "It is well with my soul."

How can I, in the middle of turmoil in my life, truly have

"peace within?" Here's how. Constantly focus on this: My sin (O the bliss of this glorious thought) not in part but the whole – has been nailed to the cross ... and I bear it no more!

Him who knew no sin, became sin – so that in him I can possess God's righteousness. What matters more than that? I'm not going to be punished for my sins because someone else has already been punished for them! That's really good news. That's the gospel.

That's what the angel told the shepherds – "I bring you good news for all people [which will produce] great joy." What is this good news? I could use a little good news today! "Today ... a savior has been born to men. He is The Anointed One – the ruler."

So, regardless of what's happening in the world and in my life, there is one truth that outweighs it all – my sin, all of it, has been nailed to the cross and I bear it no more. Praise the Lord.

-Ken Stegall
